RE: Habeas Corpus Demand

Honorable Judge Merryday;

Attached are copies of a letter sent to the Sheriff of Pinellas County and the Demand for Habeas Corpus that has been served on said Sheriff.

Regardless of the current status of Larry Myers or the progress of any proceedings against him, at this point in time, and, since he has been denied the most sacred and fundamental legal right, you, as an official of the United States government, have sworn an oath to the Constitution and must remedy this miscarriage of justice, without delay. That oath was not selective, it was all inclusive.

Since due process has been denied by refusal to recognize and consider the Habeas Corpus, you have no legal recourse except to excuse Larry Meyers and release him from custody, under the provisions of the Demand.

Further, it would be in the best interest of the country for you to take whatever action necessary to assure that there is no future violation of that sacred writ.

With due respect for the Constitutions,
I remain,
Respectfully,

Gary Hunt
